Elias the Prophet

July 20
Reading

Elias of great fame was from Thisbe or Thesbe, a town of Galaad (Gilead), beyond the Jordan. He was of priestly lineage, a man of a solitary and ascetical character, clothed in a mantle of sheep skin, and girded about his loins with a leathern belt. His name is interpreted as "Yah is my God." His zeal for the glory of God was compared to fire, and his speech for teaching and rebuke was likened unto a burning lamp. From this too he received the name Zealot. Therefore, set aflame with such zeal, he sternly reproved the impiety and lawlessness of Ahab and his wife Jezebel. He shut up heaven by means of prayer, and it did not rain for three years and six months. Ravens brought him food for his need when, at God's command, he was hiding by the torrent of Horrath. He multiplied the little flour and oil of the poor widow of Sarephtha of Sidon, who had given him hospitality in her home, and when her son died, he raised him up. He brought down fire from Heaven upon Mount Carmel, and it burned up the sacrifice offered to God before all the people of Israel, that they might know the truth. At the torrent of Kisson, he slew 450 false prophets and priests who worshipped idols and led the people astray. He received food wondrously at the hand of an Angel, and being strengthened by this food he walked for forty days and forty nights. He beheld God on Mount Horeb, as far as this is possible for human nature. He foretold the destruction of the house of Ahab, and the death of his son Ohozias; and as for the two captains of fifty that were sent by the king, he burned them for their punishment, bringing fire down from Heaven. He divided the flow of the Jordan, and he and his disciple Elisseus passed through as it were on dry land; and finally, while speaking with him, Elias was suddenly snatched away by a fiery chariot in the year 895 B.C., and he ascended as though into heaven, whither God most certainly translated him alive, as He did Enoch (Gen. 5:24; IV Kings 2: 11). But from thence also, after seven years, by means of an epistle he reproached Joram, the son of Josaphat, as it is written: "And there came a message in writing to him from Elias the Prophet, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the way," and so forth (II Chron. 21:12). According to the opinion of the majority of the interpreters, this came to pass either through his disciple Elisseus, or through another Prophet when Elias appeared to them, even as he appeared on Mount Tabor to the disciples of Christ (see Aug. 6).

From the desk of Fr. Nick...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

THIS IS THE DAY THAT THE LORD HAS MADE! LET US REJOICE AND BE GLAD IN IT!

When we walk with the Apostles during Holy Week and Pascha, and have received the blessed grace of the Holy Spirit descending on us, we really find ourselves in a unique place in our spiritual lives.

I mean, God has truly blessed all of us with this wonderful and beautiful life. And He asks us to enjoy it with the very freedom that He grants us, through His resurrection.

Now what happens when we receive our freedom? Most of us use this gift of freedom to cut loose and enjoy the things WE want to enjoy. And we think that true freedom is doing WHAT we want WHEN we want. That isn't even the definition of political freedom. We live in basically a free country, but we still have laws that we must obey. And when we break these laws, depending on how severe, sometimes the freedoms that we enjoy are taken from us.

It is the same thing with our Lord. He gives us the freedom to make choices that will benefit us and also choices that might harm us. He does not stop us from either choice. He just warns us that we can use the freedom He gave us to make good choices or choices that are not so good.

But if we have been given a gift, shouldn't we be asking ourselves… "This is an awesome gift. What does the Giver of the gift want us to do with it?" After all, when we give a gift to someone, isn't it nice when the person uses the gift as it was intended to be used?

So, what does God want us to do with this gift of freedom? Well, generally, He wants us to use it to bring more people into that same freedom that we are enjoying. How do we do that? We do that by encouraging people to come closer to the Lord, and the life He wishes each of us to live. That also means that we must teach ourselves how to abandon our own way of thinking, because many of our thoughts lead us away from God. Instead, we learn how to follow the example of the lives of the saints, who lived only in the joy of the Holy Spirit. The guidance of the Holy Spirit was how they lived, and we have seen the fruits and how we can live that same life beautifully.

This year, as we have been blessed with the gift of the Holy Spirit, we have a great opportunity to share that gift with thousands of people. So many times I hear the words, "Father, we just need more people to come to our church and see how wonderful the Orthodox Church is." Well, we have a HUGE gift then. We will literally have several thousands of people coming to visit us.

I know that they are coming for our food. But, like Jesus said to His Apostles when they asked Him if he was hungry, "I have food to eat of which you do not know." (John 4:32) We have incredible food at our festival. But that is not the best food we have. Anyone who eats the festival food will get hungry again. But if we take a few seconds and share the unique gift of Jesus Christ, Who is the Bread of Life, we will have given them eternal food that will never leave them hungry again! God Bless You All!

Message From DEACON MICHAEL

Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

The last enemy to be destroyed is death (1 Corinthians 15-26). With His Ascension, Christ unites the earth with heaven and unites the two into one; for it is He who has made both into one (Ephesians 2:4). One union with God. The theosis which is objectively offered to us by the Incarnate, Crucified, Resurrected and Ascended God, can be realized only in the Holy Spirit. Only with the Holy Spirit will we be able to receive and taste redemption and theosis. Only in the Holy Spirit will we reach the point of becoming gods; the likenesses of God. Only the Holy Spirit will transmit to us that which the Son and word of God has offered to us. Our call remains only one, theosis through our Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Spirit. The theosis of man, his perfect union with God made possible by Grace. God has given us this good in the Church. He has given us in His Holy Church, all the necessary means to achieve our goal. It will happen in conjunction with our own efforts. Through the Holy Spirit the faithful become sharers of divine nature. They are formed in the new life, they return to the original beauty of their nature. They become participants of God and children of God. They reflect the light of Christ and inherit incorruptibility. Theosis, Union with God. Reception of the Holy Spirit. How is it possible for us to make this a reality? Which is the road which leads there? The answer remains one: the Christian life. The Christian life comes into being with the sacraments and with holy works, those virtuous works which are done with a pure and holy motive in the name of Christ. May the peace of Christ rule in our hearts for men.

Yours in Christ,

Deacon Michael

YOUNG AT HEART CLUB

JULY 2024

Just thought I would recapture our last June meeting with some fun pictures of Nick Spondyl and his band. It was a very fun afternoon.

A few fun facts about July

- ◊ There is a sense of balance about July. That may be because the exact middle of each year occurs on July 2nd.
- ◊ The fireworks! The celebrations! The delicious food! On July 4th, 1776, the original 13 colonies of the United States declared its independence from the British, and the rest is history. July 4th celebrations are held throughout the country full of pride, good cheer, and time well spent with friends and family.
- ◊ One of the most historic fun facts about July. On July 16th, 1969 the crew of the Apollo 11 launched from Kennedy Space Center in Florida landed on the moon.
  - Four days later, on July 20th, 1969 Neil Armstrong was the first human to set foot on the moon. The moon landing will forever be known as one of America's greatest scientific achievements.
- ◊ The stunning red ruby is the official birthstone of July. This sought after and valuable gem is known as the king of gems and was once embedded in armor to protect against harm. Today the ruby is common in jewelry and is known to represent wisdom, love, and health.
- ◊ July is a month where flowers are at their most beautiful and July is represented by two flowers.
  - The first is the water lily. This delicate flower found often around ponds and marshes is known to symbolize lightness of heart.
  - The second is larkspur. A gorgeous flower of many colors and varieties that grows best in warm July weather. It is said to represent sweetness and laughter.
- ◊ The month of July is named after Roman leader Julius Caesar. Before the name change, July was known as Quintilis. Quintilis, the Latin word for five, was the fifth month on the Gregorian calendar.

ENJOY & STAY WELL
