From the desk of Fr. Nick...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

THIS IS THE DAY THAT THE LORD HAS MADE! LET US REJOICE AND BE GLAD IN IT!

It is the year 7533! No, I have not gone crazy, and none of your Hallmark calendars are wrong… well, sort of. We will get in to this a bit.

Every year, in September, we begin a new ecclesiastical year. September 1 marks the beginning of the church calendar year. In the Byzantine Empire years, September 1 (not January 1) was when everything rolled over. Imagine getting a printed Hallmark calendar that began with the month September and ended with the month August. Imagine our tax season ending at the end of August. Imagine all of our practices for New Year's (parties, the ball dropping in the Big Apple, Dick Clark's Rockin' in Times Square, champagne, etc.) would be happening on August 31 at midnight. Not that they did these kinds of celebrations back then, but there still was a commemoration by the church on this day.

We understand why the church celebrates January 1 now. We don't do this because it is the New Year, but rather because January 1 is St. Basil the Great and the commemoration of the Circumcision of our Lord. For the church, the secular commemoration of the New Year is always secondary to these two feasts. But back then, the secular world got its cues from the church. The scientists and biblical scholars of that time had calculated that the words "Let there be Light", spoken by God in Genesis, most likely took place on September 1. They had even calculated the year that they assumed this took place - which was 5509 years before Jesus was born. (A little math equation: 5509 + 2024 = 7533)

The church and the state, although they had separate leaders, were very much intertwined with one another. The State took much from the church as far as how to lead appropriately and with a Christ-like demeanor. In fact, the influence of the Church on the State was so great that there are even several Byzantine Emperors and Empresses that are saints of the Orthodox Church, because of their Christian leadership.

So, when we celebrated these feasts, the church was such a strong force that people had off from work in order to celebrate in the church properly. Entire days would start in the church, and it was the expectation of those people to begin their day with the worship of God in their local parish or cathedral.

Fast forward to year 2024, or year 7533 to the Orthodox church, most countries do not have a society which takes its cues from the church. While there are benefits to this, so that the wrong religion doesn't dominate the citizens of any country, we have lost the ability to be directed by anything but our own connection to Christ and His Church. Outside of Christmas and Pascha (when it falls at the same time as the West), we don't really get our society to help remind us that it is a special time for the Christians. We do have the freedom to practice our faith in this country, but our daily lives (often directed by influences outside of the church) are not getting the reminders from our society and workplaces like we used to.

It is up to us now to preserve in our own hearts all that which is sacred… In this case, we are talking about Time. It is a gift from God. We cannot keep it or preserve it. We can only use it. Hopefully, considering Who gave us this gift, we will use it for the purposes that He would approve of. When we do that, we allow Him to bless all of our endeavors that transpire in the midst of this precious gift of time. Let us, then, bless the year that is coming while giving thanks to God for the one that is past! God bless you all!

Message From DEACON MICHAEL

My brothers and sisters in Christ:

The mystery of the Eucharist is the continuation of the mystery of incarnation of the Word. And just as in the first case the human nature of Christ was made divine because it was united with the God, Word and became a source of life, so in the case of the Holy Eucharist, the person who communes is united with Christ, is made divine, is indivisibly fed and receives the seed of immortality and the resurrection from the dead. Thus it is that in the church and through mystery, our human nature is united with the divine nature in the person of the Son, who is the head of the Mystical Body. Our human nature of Christ, which was divinized in the person of Christ and remains always with Him. When the person receives the Holy Sacrament, he receives the promise of an indescribable communion with Christ in the age to come. Thus, the believers live both on earth and the present age at the same time share in the new life as citizens of the age to come. The Kingdom of God, as a communion of Christ with human beings in the Holy Spirit is already realized in this life through the mystery of the Eucharist.

Yours in Christ,

Deacon Michael

SEPTEMBER 2024

WELCOME BACK SENIORS! Hope all of you had an enjoyable summer – we sure had some hot weather. Our luncheon this month will be on September 10, 2024 at Noon. We have not yet met to decide on the food and/or the entertainment; however, we are looking forward to reuniting after the 2-month absence.

The cake this month is donated by Kalliope Kelesidis in memory of her beloved husband, Nick. Also, Ann Lazarides and Chris Gonzales have donated towards the cake in memory of Gust & Helen Christopher and Steve and Kathryn Lazarides.
THANK YOU, ladies – it is much appreciated and may their memories be eternal.

I am sure many of you remember the song by "Earth, Wind & Fire" (September). Find it and play it – you will enjoy it! "September" is more than just a song. It is a feeling. It is a reminder to enjoy the simple things in life, like spending time with loved ones and dancing under the sun. It is also a reminder that summer is coming to an end, but that autumn is just around the corner, with all its own unique beauty.

Let us all try to simplify our lives as simplicity is the key to a beautiful life.

"In simplicity lies beauty" – Ralph Waldo Emerson
"A vocabulary of truth and simplicity will be of service throughout your life." – Winston Churchill
"Simplicity is the ultimate sophistication." Leonardo da Vinci

In Paulo Coelho's brilliant little book, The Alchemist it states about lightening ones' load and simplifying your life. We need to rid ourselves from a few of our many activities. We sometimes do not have a chance to simply purge some of our burdens - to be able to lift our heads and see the true beauty and simple life around us.

Simply said - We look forward to seeing all of you at the luncheon (Tuesday, September 10). Please remember to call Renny Stephen at 330-323-8631 by Tuesday, September 3rd.

ST. JOHN CHRYSOSTOM ANNUAL RETREAT

Retreat Theme: Addictions & The Passions -
How Unhealthy Connections Affect Us Spiritually
Speaker: Fr. Dimitrios Moraitis

From Our Parish Council President

The Good Old Days

And tomorrow we might not be together
I'm no prophet, Lord I don't know nature's way
So I'll try to see into your eyes right now
And stay right here, 'cause these are the good old days.

These lyrics by Carly Simon in her song "Anticipation" have been one of the soundtracks of my life as I come to realize in a more focused way the need to attend to the here and now of my days. I'm a nostalgic sort of person who (mostly) cherishes the past but who on occasion loses sight of the present, or spends too much time thinking about the hazy future. Years ago when I was put in charge of my first large inpatient hospital unit, I longed for the simpler days of "just" being a staff nurse but came to realize I could make a bigger difference in the lives of my patients and staff as the leader, even though it was the hardest job I ever had. When my twins became teenagers, you can't imagine how much I missed the younger days when I was their hero; and now they are parents and appreciate the lessons imparted, and it is a joy to be with my grandchildren and see my kids as wonderful loving parents. And as I look back, I see that my entire life -- filled with its triumphs, defeats, sorrow and joys -- was in preparation for this moment, and that these are truly the "good old days."

I mention all of this as a reminder to appreciate what we have, even with our physical infirmities, the loss of family members, and the steady progression of time and change. Be thankful, rejoice in remaining strengths and abilities, and keep in mind those who love us. Help those in need, forgive those who have hurt us and be generous in all things, most especially in the giving of yourself. It's not easy; I don't think it is supposed to be.

And finally: THANK YOU to all of the donors and volunteers who helped build our Habitat for Humanity home for the Dove family! The home serves to honor the memory of the late Honorable Harry E. Klide who was a legendary supporter of Habitat. As you read this Kashari and Jerzee have moved into their new home. Also, a big thank you to the wonderful staff of the East Central Ohio Habitat for Humanity staff who facilitated the planning and execution of the project, and of course to Joe Powell and his consultancy Integrated Heat Treating Solutions for his generosity as the co-sponsor of the build.
