From the desk of Fr. Nick...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

THIS IS THE DAY THAT THE LORD HAS MADE! LET US REJOICE AND BE GLAD IN IT!

Voting always seems important, doesn't it? If you are a white male in America, maybe it seems a little less important (I hope not, though). But if you are a black person or a woman, who had to fight for the ability to vote, voting is a huge privilege that should be exercised with respect to those who handed you that ability. Having said that, we often forget that the founding fathers also had to fight for the ability to vote as well, more than once. And it also cost many of them their lives.

That is why Veteran's Day is such a big deal in our country, and it should always be. We have many freedoms that, I think, we take for granted. We just assume that all we have to do is vote for something or vote against something to ensure that we get what we deserve in this country. Often, we forget the sacrifices that were made by others to ensure that we have this ability.

But is voting the most important thing? Is a singular vote something that encapsulates you and your interests? Can I define a person by how they vote? Should anyone? Or is there a bigger picture out there that has more to say about who you are? Certainly, we are more than the sum of our political votes. While a vote does say something about us, we are more than what a ballot can say about us.

This is why politics will always fall short of their goals, and why Christ never will. Politics sees our votes and tracks our history. And they assume that because we voted for a certain candidate, we will align all of our views according with all of the candidate's views and the views of the party that they represent. They don't really know us, and they don't really care to.

But Christ truly desires to know us. He wants to know everything about us – not because He created us, but because we freely share our lives with Him. He wants to know our hearts, minds and souls. He wants to be in a relationship with us. He wants to walk with us and talk with us. And quite often, He does this very thing – whether we've asked Him to or not.

But even more importantly than us sharing our lives with Him – He wants to share His life with us! Can you imagine if the most famous person came to our house and wanted to spend even a day with us? What would our reaction be? What would our answer be? "I'm sorry, but I'm too busy to spend time with you"??? I don't think that we would do that. We would call in sick from work or do whatever we had to do in order to honor that important person's request that day.

What we don't realize is that this is our reality every day of our lives. The most important being to have ever lived, our Lord and God, desires our hearts and our souls. And He asks for a small bit of our time – not even close to all of it. What is that time for? It is to share our lives with Him and in return He shares a bit of His life with us.

The best part of this is that we didn't have to vote Him in to office. Thankfully, He occupies an eternal throne that won't ever be subject to impeachment or resignation! He endures all of our struggles while He also heals us to become better at living our daily lives with and for Him.

Let us then be willing to honor our Lord Jesus Christ, no matter who our president is or what becomes of our republic in America. The kingdom of heaven is not a democracy anyway, and its "veterans" are never forgotten in the hearts and minds of the faithful. God bless you all!

THANK YOU NOTES

Thank you to all for the outpouring of support and care from our family and friends during the passing of our beloved mother, yiayia, and aunt, Clare Stasin. Special thanks to Father Nick for all of his kindness, concern, and visits during this difficult time. Also, a big thank you to the Koraes Ladies Society for their help and support with the Makaria. With love, the Family of Clare Stasin

Thank you to Father Nick and also the wonderful ladies of KORAES for their help in preparing the tables for our families' memorial; a job beautifully done! A big thanks as well to our fellow parishioners who contributed baked goods for this event. Our church has always been a refuge and gathering place, not only for worship but for meaningful fellowship. I don't know of a better place to call our second home.

From the families of Steve and Kathryn Lazarides, Gust, Helen and Andrew Christopher.

With appreciation! Ann Lazarides and Chris Gonzales

Message From DEACON MICHAEL ...

My brothers and sisters in Christ:

The Divine Liturgy is the common work of the Orthodox Church. It is the official action of the church formally gathered together as the chosen people of God. The Divine Liturgy is the common action of Orthodox Christians officially gathered to constitute the Orthodox faith. It is the action of the church assembled by God in order to be together in one community to worship, to pray, to sing, to bear God's word, to be instructed in God's commandments to offer itself with Thanksgiving in Christ to God the Father, and to have the living experience of God's eternal kingdom through communion with the same Christ who is present in His people by the Holy Spirit. As the central mystical action of the whole church, the Divine Liturgy is always resurrectional in spirit. It is always the manifestation of His people of the Risen Christ. It is always the expression and the experience of the eternal life of the Kingdom of the blessed Trinity.

My family and myself, we wish all of you a Blessed and Joyful Thanksgiving Day!

Xronia Polla

CATERING NEWS

It's FALL everyone!!!

We know this because of our Koraes Ladies Society Fall Event! We look forward to this beautiful event every year. These ladies know how to put on a professional dinner theater show!!

How about some trivia questions??

What year was the first THINK MINK event?
What stores provided the clothes for the style show?
Who won that year?
Who were the models from Holy Trinity?

We honestly do not know the answers! But, some of you may. I will post the answers in next month's Trinitarian. Please let me know if you know!!

Thank you all for your continuing support!

From Our Parish Council President

So, What Have You Done for Me Lately?

Frankly, if I were attending a wedding party and a young man in the company of his disciples was able to replenish the beverage supply by changing water into an excellent wine, I'd sure be impressed. But I eventually might attribute it to some sort of party trick, being the skeptic that I am, and think, "Well, if he could cure paralysis and blindness, perhaps walk on water, or resurrect the dead, then I would be a follower for sure." More and more. How much evidence do people need before they believe?

It doesn't really seem fair, but people have short memories of past accomplishments, and although often unspoken, we tend to expect more and more from others, but in the process somehow forgetting our own obligation to do the same for others.

In my clinical and corporate career, continuous improvement was expected, and I certainly demanded it from my team. If you aren't improving, you're declining. There is no standing still. Patients deserve to be taken care of by people who are on the top of their game and hungry for more knowledge and increasing their capacity for compassion and kindness. And if you've ever worked for a publicly held company, you'll appreciate the need to keep the shareholders happy by increasing their dividend earnings – and they are a group that definitely demand to know "What have you done for me lately?" And so, we refine our communication skills, find creative ways to efficiently solve their difficult problems, move mountains, and so forth.

Since retiring from the "real" workforce, I've become a little more introspective about what sort of person I have become, and about what sort of person I hope to be. It's funny, but I always thought that once I became this ancient I'd have all the answers and would be loaded with all sorts of wisdom. Not the case, as many of you know. 🙂 As President of the Parish Council, I have learned there is a lot that I have yet to learn, that volunteers are managed differently than employees, and that for the Church to flourish we must keep moving forward, take risks and do new things. Admittedly it's a bit of a paradox in an organization that prides itself on 2,000 years of unchanging tradition. I resolve this dilemma by thinking in business terms: it's our strategy and principles that stay constant, but the tactics to achieve our goals must evolve.

So, consider joining me in this quest for personal and spiritual improvement. Keep moving – we need help in most every area. Baking, building maintenance, book store, youth activities – you are needed somewhere. Just showing up for Church is progress for many; you are missed. Kindness and forgiveness when the kitchen is not pristine. Doing the dirty work. Sharing and teaching your skills. Reading and learning about the faith.

Actually, the real question is this: What Have You Done for Him Lately?

Holy Trinity is delighted to participate in the Adopt-A-Family program once again along with Layers of Hope (Coats) and the Mitten Tree (Hats & Gloves).

Holy Trinity will be adopting 4 large families again to provide joy this Christmas season. Here is how it works:

1. Pick a tag off of the tree
2. Purchase a gift that is listed on the tag (age and sex will be indicated); All items must be new!
3. Wrap your gift and attach the tag from the tree to the package
4. Place the wrapped gift under the Adopt a Family Christmas tree.

ALL GIFTS must be into the church and under the tree by Saturday, December 7th.
Please note: Any gifts received after Liturgy on Sunday cannot be delivered to the families!

We are also pleased to partner with the REFUGE OF HOPE MINISTRIES located in Canton again this year under the name of Layers of Hope, collecting new and gently used coats.

Collection includes new coats, lightly used clean coats, sweatshirts, and jackets. The donation box is located under the coat racks in the main hallway. Let's fill this with lots of love!

We will again be providing new hats, gloves, scarves, and mittens to pass out to those in need. This tree will be found near the East Entrance for placement of these items beginning the week of November 1. We filled this tree with wonderful gifts last year and hope to help provide warm mittens, hats, gloves and scarves for all ages again this year. All items must be on the mitten tree by December 15, 2024.

Monetary Donations may also be made by check to A Community Christmas of Stark County Inc. and given to the Church Office. Thank you so much, Holy Trinity parishioners, for your generous support!
