Mary Magdalene, Myrrhbearer & Equal-to-the-Apostles

July 22

Reading

Saint Mary was from Magdala in Galilee on the Sea of Tiberias, and for this was named Magdalene. When the Lord Jesus cast out seven demons from her, from which she had been suffering, she became His faithful and inseparable disciple, following Him and ministering unto Him even to the time of His crucifixion and burial. Then, returning to Jerusalem together with the rest of the Myrrh-bearers, she prepared the fragrant spices for anointing the body of the Lord. And on the Lord's day they came very early to the tomb, even before the Angels appeared declaring the Resurrection of the Lord. When Mary Magdalene saw the stone taken away from the tomb, she ran and proclaimed it to Peter and John. And returning immediately to the tomb and weeping outside, she was deemed worthy to be the first of the Myrrh-bearers to behold the Lord arisen from the dead, and when she fell at His feet, she heard Him say, "Touch Me not." After the Lord's Ascension, nothing certain is known concerning her. Some accounts say that she went to Rome and later returned to Jerusalem, and from there proceeded to Ephesus, where she ended her life, preaching Christ. Although it is sometimes said that Saint Mary Magdalene was the "sinful woman" of the Gospel, this is nowhere stated in the tradition of the Church, in the sacred hymnology, or in the Holy Gospels themselves, which say only that our Lord cast seven demons out of her, not that she was a fallen woman. "Madeleine" is a form of Magdalene.

From the desk of Fr. Nick...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This is the day that the Lord has made! Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

Summer is a wonderful time, and we are already halfway through it! Man, where did the time go? Well, it goes to the exact place where it always ends up… right behind us. That is the funny thing about time. We can't keep it. We can't hold on to it. With all of our technology, we have not been able to retain even one second of time without losing it.

We always talk about money being the most precious commodity, but really when you think about it, it is time. Time is a mystery. No one knows when it began, and no one will know when it will end. We only know when it begins and ends for us, and even then we are hazy about the ending part. I heard a comedian say once, "I knew when I was going to die, because my birth certificate had an expiration date on it."

So, if time is so precious, what do we spend our time doing? Well, if we are honest, then sleeping, self-care (exercise, eating, bathing, etc.) and work take about 75-80% of our day… So, with the 4-6 hours that we have left, what do we do with it?

How much of that time is given to our families? How much do we spend with our friends? How much is given to God? How much do we use watching TV or news or social media? We really need to be aware of all of these things.

Why do we need to be aware of these things? We need to know these things because we have such limited amounts of it. 86,400 seconds in a day. 10,080 minutes in week. 8,670 hours in a year. So, if you take the 75% out, we have 21,600 seconds per day, 2,520 minutes per week and 2,167.5 hours per year that we can use for something that isn't sleeping or eating, etc.

If it was a bank account, then we could save some. But this is all gift, and it is expended each moment of our lives. So, it is a bad idea to waste it on something that isn't helping ourselves become better Christians or showing love to our neighbor.

Now, I'm not saying that relaxation is a waste. Even God showed us that He took time in His day to do something that wasn't "work". He went into the desert to fast and pray for 40 days. After feeding the 5,000, he went up a mountain to pray. Even before His crucifixion, He went to the garden, where he spent time praying to give Him strength before His Passion. A little peace and silence every day is a good thing. But we must be reminded of how precious each second is to us, and make the conscious decision to use it wisely (for the aims and purposes that fulfill how God has given us the talents to live.)

Whether we see time as an enemy or a friend, we still must understand that each day, we won't know how much of the 86,400 daily seconds our Lord is going to give us to use. And if it is His before He gives it to us, shouldn't we at least be asking Him how He would have us use it?

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, our main goal isn't to live a good life here. Our main goal is to live eternally in the Kingdom of Heaven. Using these 86,400 moments per day, that we cannot hold on to, for God's glory should be our most vital priority. May we have the strength and courage to live always for Him, not wasting one moment. Using the limited time wisely here, grants us unlimited time in the Kingdom of Heaven! God bless you all!

Message From DEACON MICHAEL

Brothers and sisters in Christ: After the Baptism and Repentance, it is the Mystery of the Holy Eucharist which unites us in a mystical and spiritual manner with God and which produces divinization. The Holy Mystery of the Body and Blood is a concrete realization of the unity of human nature with Christ and with all the members of the church. The Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist is closely related to Holy Baptism. The work of the renewal and theosis of human beings which was once performed through Holy Baptism is continued by the Eucharist, which constantly repeated. The Eucharist feeds the believer with the body and blood of Christ. It strengthens us and moves us forward. It unites us closely with the Savior and leads us firmly toward theosis, to become Christ like. Holy Communion is a continuous appearance of the human before the divine, it offers the potential of a meeting with Christ. It fills our whole human nature with a mystical rejoicing. In the Holy Eucharist our humanity comes into contact with the highest spiritual world, and enters into true life. The faithful are between Christ and the true believer. The faithful are mystically united with the Lord, the Lord is the invisible and spiritual head of the faithful. The faithful are united among themselves through the Holy Eucharist. In this manner the Holy Church of Christ is constituted as the mystical body of the saints.

Your parish Deacon,

Deacon Michael

FOOD SAFETY CONCERN

We have noticed many more "CUTS" on the stainless steeled table… especially across from the burners. This causes bacteria to easily increase. There are several cutting boards, large & small, under the back sinks. Please use them for everyone's health!

JULY 2025

Thank you to Mary & Tom Papadopoulos for donating the birthday cake at our June luncheon/picnic in honor of their mom, Afro, who celebrated her birthday on June 15!

Just to name a few other 'famous' people born in July (besides our own Holy Trinity folks) are:

Julius Caesar and Alexander, the Great another important historical figure who changed the shape of the world and was born somewhere around July 20, 356 BC.

Other famous people born in July include Nelson Mandela; Princess Diana, Ernest Hemingway, and Paisios of Mount Athos.

*ALEXANDER THE GREAT – 356 – 323 BCE

Already an acclaimed warrior before succeeding to the throne of Macedonia in 336 BCE. Alexander carved out both a massive empire. which reached from Greece into India. and a reputation as one of history's greatest generals. He founded many cities and exported Greek language. culture. and thought across the Empire. beginning the Hellenistic era. He was also interested in science and his expeditions stimulated discoveries. He did all this in just twelve years of rule. dying at age 33. Alexander the Great created a vast empire and spread Greek culture across many lands.

In the Orthodox Church, though the month of July does not have any Major Feasts of the Lord or the Theotokos, it is still considered a month of festivity. This is because many of the Saints and Feasts commemorated in the month of July are popular Saints and Feasts which have many churches dedicated to them, and for this reason pilgrims flock to these churches in the warmth of the summer in order to celebrate them. One could speculate that since the weather in July is more agreeable for an outdoor festival, perhaps more than any other month, then it may be that because these Saints and Feasts are commemorated in July, they became especially popular as they were more celebrated. It should be noted also that often in July we also commemorate the Sunday of All Saints, and on the three weekends that follow, we commemorate according to the moveable calendar many saints of various regions of the world, or ones who lived and struggled under various circumstances, such as the New Martyrs Under the Turks

On July 4, 1776, the 13 American colonies declared their independence from the British monarchy. The 4th of July, formally known as Independence Day, has been a federal holiday since 1870 in the United States of America. BE SAFE THIS 4TH, especially if firing off fireworks.
