Transfiguration of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ

August 06

Reading

Our Lord had spoken to His disciples many times not only concerning His Passion, Cross, and Death, but also concerning the coming persecutions and afflictions that they themselves would endure. Since all these evils were near at hand, but the enjoyment of good things which they hoped to receive in their stead was yet to come, our Savior desired to give them full assurance, evidently and openly, concerning that glory which is prepared for those who endure to the end. Therefore, fulfilling that which He had promised shortly before, that "there be some standing here which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in His Kingdom" (Matt. 16:28), He took His three foremost disciples and ascended Mount Tabor, where He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became white as the light. Suddenly, together with this dread and marvelous effulgence of light, there appeared those pinnacles of the Prophets, Moses and Elias, who spoke with the Lord Jesus concerning His saving Passion which was about to take place. Standing before Him as reverent servants, they showed that He is the Lord of both the living and the dead, for Moses came forth from Hades, having died many centuries before, and Elias, as it were from heaven, whither he had been taken up while yet alive. After a little while a radiant cloud overshadowed them and out of the cloud they heard that same voice which had been heard at the Jordan at the Baptism of Christ, testifying to the Divinity of Jesus and saying: "This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well-pleased; hear ye Him" (Matt. 17: 5).

Such are the marvels, truly worthy of God, celebrated in this present feast, which is an image and prefiguring of the future state of the righteous, whose splendor the Lord spoke of, saying: "Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun" (Matt. 13:43). It is because of this that the Kontakion of this Feast is said daily (when there is not a great feast) in the Service of the Typica in perpetual commemoration of the glory that will be the lot of the Saints. According to tradition, the Lord's Transfiguration came to pass forty days before His Crucifixion; this is why the Transfiguration is celebrated forty days before the Exaltation of the Cross.

From the desk of Fr. Nick...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This is the day that the Lord has made! Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

Summer is a wonderful time, and we are already halfway through it! Man, where did the time go? Well, it goes to the exact place where it always ends up… right behind us. That is the funny thing about time. We can't keep it. We can't hold on to it. With all of our technology, we have not been able to retain even one second of time without losing it.

We always talk about money being the most precious commodity, but really when you think about it, it is time. Time is a mystery. No one knows when it began, and no one will know when it will end. We only know when it begins and ends for us, and even then we are hazy about the ending part. I heard a comedian say once, "I knew when I was going to die, because my birth certificate had an expiration date on it."

So, if time is so precious, what do we spend our time doing? Well, if we are honest, then sleeping, self-care (exercise, eating, bathing, etc.) and work take about 75-80% of our day… So, with the 4-6 hours that we have left, what do we do with it?

How much of that time is given to our families? How much do we spend with our friends? How much is given to God? How much do we use watching TV or news or social media? We really need to be aware of all of these things.

Why do we need to be aware of these things? We need to know these things because we have such limited amounts of it. 86,400 seconds in a day. 10,080 minutes in a week. 8,670 hours in a year. So, if you take the 75% out, we have 21,600 seconds per day, 2,520 minutes per week and 2,167.5 hours per year that we can use for something that isn't sleeping or eating, etc.

If it was a bank account, then we could save some. But this is all a gift, and it is expended each moment of our lives. So, it is a bad idea to waste it on something that isn't helping ourselves become better Christians or showing love to our neighbor.

Now, I'm not saying that relaxation is a waste. Even God showed us that He took time in His day to do something that wasn't "work". He went into the desert to fast and pray for 40 days. After feeding the 5,000, he went up a mountain to pray. Even before His crucifixion, He went to the garden, where he spent time praying to give Him strength before His Passion. A little peace and silence every day is a good thing. But we must be reminded of how precious each second is to us, and make the conscious decision to use it wisely (for the aims and purposes that fulfill how God has given us the talents to live.)

Whether we see time as an enemy or a friend, we still must understand that each day, we won't know how much of the 86,400 daily seconds our Lord is going to give us to use. And if it is His before He gives it to us, shouldn't we at least be asking Him how He would have us use it?

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, our main goal isn't to live a good life here. Our main goal is to live eternally in the Kingdom of Heaven. Using these 86,400 moments per day, that we cannot hold on to, for God's glory should be our most vital priority. May we have the strength and courage to live always for Him, not wasting one moment. Using the limited time wisely here, grants us unlimited time in the Kingdom of Heaven! God bless you all!

Message From DEACON MICHAEL

Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

As we know that we are the new people of God, we are redeemed and sanctified by the Lord Jesus Christ. The church is consecrated by Him for witness about Him in the world and before the world. Christ is the Savior of the world and the salvation of the world was already accomplished in His incarnation. In Him, God became man, and man is deified. Sin and death are conquered, life is made manifest and triumphant. And thus, first of all, the church is His life. Christ Himself is living in the people who have accepted Him and who in Him have unity with God and with each other. In every liturgy, the church meets the coming in power, in her everyone who hungers and thirsts is granted, here on this earth, in this age, the contemplation of the light of Mount Tabor, the possessions of perfect joy and peace in the Holy Spirit. God gives the Spirit without measure, all are consecrated by Him. The reconciliation, union and communication with Him that has been granted and is granted to us in Christ, the Son of God, who became the Son of man, in us in Christ, in whom we have peace with God. We have obtained access to this Grace. Jesus said, "I am the way and the truth, and the life, no one comes to the Father, but by me." (John 14:6) Therefore the Eucharist is the eternally living source of the Church's knowledge of the most Holy Trinity.

Your parish Deacon Michael Bardawil,

Deacon Michael

CATERING

Last month we asked for the towels to be washed separate from the aprons. This month's request is to NOT add fabric softener to the towels! That is for aprons, tablecloths and skirting only! Fabric softener makes the towels less absorbent. Thank you!!

Kitchen safety:

It is NOT good to wash chicken prior to cooking! There is much more chance of contamination, not only for the chicken, but the area around the process. Using the red and green buckets with soap and sanitizer is a MUST!!

Also, the cutting boards must be sanitized after each use.

We still have several dates to fill for events. Please spread the word!

Stewardship Doesn't Take a Summer Vacation! And Neither Does Maintenance and Repair

As I write this we are about 10 days away from the start of our Grecian Festival, and the Church is cranking with lots of activity including baking, landscaping, organizing the volunteer workforce, and onboarding supplies. We have every reason to believe this year will be the best ever. Thank you in advance for your help and prayers.

As you may know, stewardship tends to drop significantly over the summer months, but unfortunately our bills and other Church-related obligations remain constant or higher. On one hand, I realize that we seem to always be asking for donations for various causes, and the parishioners at Holy Trinity have consistently demonstrated their generosity. So I write to ask you to simply consider increasing your stewardship to cover the summer months if you have been absent from Church this season and have not given your usual stewardship.

You've doubtlessly noticed some changes to the Church and our grounds. Under the leadership of Tom Papadopoulos we have removed several large trees that had been planted too close to the building and posed a threat to the Church and our heating/cooling system in the event of a major storm (and they were also an expressway for critters to jump onto the roof and do whatever.)

We've pruned the trees lining the drive to remove low-hanging branches, and had some preventative pruning done to many other smaller trees to help ensure their health and longevity. You'll see that we are also growing new grass on the east side of the building just outside the Sunday School rooms, and have added dirt near the sidewalk to mitigate the steep drop-off onto the grass.

The Fine Arts committee arranged to have the storage trailer near the west parking lot power-washed and painted. They are considering some additional art work, perhaps the Church and Festival logos to be added in the future. Thanks to Ellen Romeo and the entire committee.

Inside, we have had a number of plumbing repairs to deal with leaks and an aging system. The water fountains are largely non-functional and were probably a reservoir for bacteria and were removed. We are researching our options to refinish the exterior wood doors at the main entrance to the narthex as well as the exterior east doors near the office. We note that the steel framework around both sets of doors will probably need replaced or repaired. At the parish home, we contracted with an exterminator to remove a number of critters, mainly squirrels, who wanted to make the attic their home.

And finally, we are looking to replace much of the roof. While the south end was replaced in the Fall of 2019, our insurance company threatens to drop us unless we replace the rest of it. Our insurance agent, Chris Vallos, is researching our options with other companies but the sad fact is that most of them will want to reduce their risk and demand replacement. The parish council will be evaluating bids and make a recommendation to take to a special general assembly, most likely in September or October. Obviously you will want to be present at that meeting and we will notify you in advance of the exact date.

Many thanks to each of you for making Holy Trinity our spiritual home!

The Metropolis Clergy-Laity Assembly

The 2025 Metropolis of Pittsburgh Clergy-Laity, Religious Educator and Youth Worker Assembly will be held from September 25th - 27th at Annunciation Cathedral, Columbus, Ohio.

The Metropolis Clergy-Laity Assembly concerns itself with matters affecting the life and growth of the Parishes and communities within the Metropolis (except for dogmatic and canonical issues). It deals with matters of common concern including the uniform governance of the Parishes, educational programs, financial programs, and philanthropic concerns as well as with the better organization and effectiveness of the Parishes. The Assembly also submits proposals and recommendations to the Archdiocese for submission to the next Archdiocesan Clergy-Laity Congress.

By tradition our Assembly meets annually in the Fall, and is comprised of the Metropolitan, members of the Metropolis Council, any members of the Archdiocesan Council who live in the Metropolis, and 4 representatives of each parish - the parish priest, parish council president, and two elected lay delegates. The 1-day session includes educational workshops, committee sessions, opportunities for networking and collaboration, and the plenary session. In even-numbered years the Assembly takes place in the Greater Pittsburgh area, and in odd-numbered years it travels to the other regions of the Metropolis.
