Luke the Evangelist

October 18

Reading

This Apostle was an Antiochean, a physician by trade, and a disciple and companion of Paul. He wrote his Gospel in Greek after Matthew and Mark, after which he wrote the Acts of the Apostles, and dedicated both works to Theophilus, who, according to some, was Governor of Achaia. He lived some eighty-six years and died in Achaia, perhaps in Patras, the capital of this district. His emblem is the calf, the third symbolical beast mentioned by Ezekiel (1:10), which is a symbol of Christ's sacrificial and priestly office, as Saint Irenaeus says.

Apolytikion of Luke the Evangelist

Third Tone

O Holy Apostle and Evangelist Luke, intercede to our merciful God, that He may grant our souls forgiveness of sins.

Kontakion of Luke the Evangelist

Fourth Tone

As a disciple of the Word of God, with Paul you illuminated all the earth and dispelled the gloom in writing Christ's divine Gospel.

From the desk of Fr. Nick...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This is the day that the Lord has made! Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

Okay, I am the positivity guy. You know, I can spin light and joy from just about anywhere. But, we have had a very disturbing month this last month on a national scale. And this needs some attention.

We've had school shootings (Minneapolis and Denver), we've had a Ukrainian girl killed on a train, we've had multiple politicians killed earlier this year, and then we've had the assassination of Charlie Kirk (who was a political activist).

Now, I know that there have been attempts from many different sides of people who want to make more or less of Charlie Kirk's death, based on their political side. One side is calling him a martyr, and one side feels that there is too much being made of his death.

Here is why all the deaths are different than this death of Charlie Kirk: For every other death that I mentioned above, no one celebrated. No one cheered when those kids lost their lives. No one rejoiced when the other politicians were murdered. Everyone cringed when they learned of the Ukrainian girl's brutal death on the subway.

But when Charlie Kirk died, there was actual rejoicing happening. Actual celebration took place when he was shot and murdered. People actually took videos of themselves laughing, cheering and jumping for joy at the news that he had been killed. I didn't believe this myself until I saw it with my own eyes.

Here's what I don't understand. We have been told that hate crimes are not okay. We have been told that hate speech is not okay. (Believers in Jesus Christ should be following this anyway)… But, we have been told this from the sides of politics as well. So, with that in mind… Can there be a bigger sign of hatred than to celebrate and jump for joy at the news that someone was killed? I really don't know that there can be. Aside from shooting the gun ourselves, that's about as deep of a sense of hatred as we can go.

Now, I'm not saying that everything that Charlie Kirk said was good. He was a political figure, who had strong Christian beliefs. Some of those beliefs, both politically and theologically, were not inline with the faith and beliefs of the Orthodox Church. (I personally would have loved an opportunity to see if he could have changed any of those seemingly core beliefs of his to become more Orthodox, but that is a moot point now.)

We must be careful to avoid any extremism in this. There are those who are painting him to be a religious martyr and there are those who feel (based on their reaction at his death) that he was the reincarnation of Adolf Hitler. Time will tell how history will remember him, but we must resist all knee-jerk reactions. St. Basil uses a helpful image of a bee to assist us in how we can utilize discernment at times like this:

> "Let our use of books and learning in every case mirror the 'icon' of the honeybee. For such does not visit every flower in the same manner, neither does the honeybee attempt to fly off bearing the burden of the entire flower. Rather, once it derives that which is needful from the flower, it leaves the rest behind and takes flight."
> -St. Basil the Great from his "Address to Young Men on the Right Use of Greek Literature"

As Orthodox Christians in this country and world, we must find some perspective. God is everywhere and in everything. It is the discerning Christian who can look and find the goodness and appreciate that, while still acknowledging that there are still things in everyone that need the perfection of Jesus Christ. But before we notice that bad in others, aren't we called first to notice it in ourselves?

The world needs us, Beloved! The world needs a faithful and devoted Christ-centered people to shine His light everywhere. Let us be that light! Let us shine that light! And let us reflect God's loving and perfect light everywhere there is the darkness of godlessness and hatred! God bless you all!

Message From DEACON MICHAEL

The Church of Jesus Christ

The Church of Jesus Christ is a unique entity comprising the revealed truth of the Christian religion. The church of the faithful, embodies the Christian faith, projects Christian hope, and gives life to Christian love. The Church was founded by the Lord Jesus Christ who remains in it forever as its Head. Christ entrusts His own being to handing down divine revelation, in oral form and later recorded in written form. To constitute tradition at large. The faithful, saints and sinners assemble together under the Church's shelter to achieve repentance and forgiveness and to fortify the steadfastness of their will for the accomplishment of the will of God. This Church is the divine workshop for the teaching and sanctification of the faithful. The fathers of the church assembled in synods to discuss the disputed point and to decree and interpret the correct meaning of those truths. The content of the Scriptures was written by chosen and inspired persons, prophets and disciples under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the supreme author and guardian under whose direction and protection the Scriptures become the inspired and infallible source of faith and salvation. The fundamental truth of the Orthodox Church is the faith revealed in the true God. The Holy Trinity of the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit. The doctrine of the Holy Trinity in reality is the declaration of the Christian faith, formulated and pronounced by the Ecumenical Synods of the Undivided Church.

In Christ,

Your Parish Deacon Michael

Fr. Barnabas (Charles) Powell is a native of Atlanta, Georgia. Having been raised in a small Pentecostal church as a boy, Barnabas grew to love the church, enjoy the music, and eventually came to be the youth pastor of his home church. He graduated from an Evangelical Protestant school in Georgia, and went on to establish a new church in the Atlanta area. While pastoring, Barnabas also was heavily involved with Evangelical Christian media, radio, television, and print. A reading program in Church History and Theology would eventually lead him to enter the Orthodox Church in November of 2001. In 2007, Barnabas entered Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology in Brookline, MA. He graduated, he was ordained a deacon on November 8, 2009, and then he was made a priest at Annunciation Greek Orthodox Cathedral by His Eminence Metropolitan Alexios on Sunday March 8, 2010. He is now the proistamenos (senior pastor) of Sts. Raphael, Nicholas, and Irene Greek Orthodox Church in Cumming, GA.

Fr. Barnabas founded Faith Encouraged Ministries in 2014 and was the host of Faith Encouraged LIVE talk show on Ancient Faith Radio until January of 2019. Faith Encouraged Ministries continues to produce the Monday thru Friday Devotional called Faith Encouraged Daily. Fr. Barnabas published his first book "A Faith Encouraged" through Ancient Faith Publishing and also produced the 16 part video series called "A Journey to Fullness" to help parishes introduce the Faith to the average person. To date, over 200 parishes across the United States and Canada use the video series to serve their communities. Fr. Barnabas travels extensively across the country speaking at spiritual retreats, and sharing special presentations.

Fr. Barnabas is particularly motivated by the beauty and timelessness of our Orthodox Christian faith and strives to see this timeless faith put down deep roots here in America. The Orthodox Christian faith is uniquely suited to quench the spiritual thirst of Americans from all backgrounds with the depth and beauty of the Timeless Faith of the Apostles. Fr. Barnabas is married to the (former) Connie Demas, and they have two daughters, Alexandra and Katherine. For more information about Faith Encouraged Ministries go to FaithEncouraged.org.
