February 14

Reading

Through the Apostolic Constitutions (Book VIII, ch. 42), the Church of Christ has received the custom to make commemorations for the departed on the third, ninth, and fortieth days after their repose. Since many throughout the ages, because of an untimely death in a faraway place, or other adverse circumstances, have died without being deemed worthy of the appointed memorial services, the divine Fathers, being so moved in their love for man, have decreed that a common memorial be made this day for all pious Orthodox Christians who have reposed from all ages past, so that those who did not have particular memorial services may be included in this common one for all. Also, the Church of Christ teaches us that alms should be given to the poor by the departed one's kinsmen as a memorial for him.

Besides this, since we make commemoration tomorrow of the Second Coming of Christ, and since the reposed have neither been judged, nor have received their complete recompense (Acts 17:31; II Peter 2:9; Heb. 11:39-40), the Church rightly commemorates the souls today, and trusting in the boundless mercy of God, she prays Him to have mercy on sinners. Furthermore, since the commemoration is for all the reposed together, it reminds each of us of his own death, and arouses us to repentance.

From the desk of Fr. Nick...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

THIS IS THE DAY THAT THE LORD HAS MADE! LET US REJOICE AND BE GLAD IN IT!

It's baaaaaaaaaaaack! Triodion and Great Lent just hit!

Man…. Just at the point where you think we can relax into the Feast of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple (Feb. 2), suddenly Triodion is upon us and Great Lent is just around the corner… Definitely different than relaxing into the post-Theophany weeks and enjoying a decently lengthy time without fasting.

(To be honest, starting from the Nativity fast and depending on when Pascha is, we normally don't ever go more than three months without re-entering another fasting period. If you are counting, the longest period we go without fasting is the three months in between the Panagia fast and the Nativity fast. The shortest period without fasting is the one month in between the fast of the Apostles and the Panagia fast.)

But Great Lent isn't just about fasting. I mean, fasting is a huge part of it, after all it is the longest period we go fasting this strictly throughout the whole year. (I know that the Nativity fast is also 40 days, but for the first few weeks of the fast, it is a lighter fast. Great Lent starts with Clean Week and just gets stronger as we go.)

But, like I said before, Great Lent is more than just fasting. I know that fasting, for some, is hard enough, so you might not want to hear that there is more to this time period. Nevertheless, it is true. Fasting is just the tip of the iceberg for Great Lent.

Great Lent offers so much more. It offers extra prayer, reflection and introspection. It offers us a time for recognizing our sins. I know, I know… it is hard to admit that we aren't perfect and not always right. But, it is true. Great Lent offers us a time for recognition of our sins and Great Lent also encourages swift correction through repentance and the Great and Holy Sacrament of Confession.

Great Lent doesn't just beat us down with the remembrance of our sinfulness. Great Lent offers us plenty of opportunities for being refreshed in our Lenten struggle. We have Liturgy 3 times a week: Sunday, Wednesday and Friday. (Wednesday and Friday are Presanctified Liturgies). We have Compline every night for the first week of Great Lent (The first four days are the Great Compline accompanied by a quarter of the Great Canon of St. Andrew of Crete and Friday Night is the Small Compline accompanied also by a quarter of the Akathist by St. Romanos).

The 5 Sundays of Great Lent have different remembrances that help with our Lenten journey: The 1st Sunday is Sunday of Orthodoxy and we process our icons. The 2nd Sunday is St. Gregory Palamas. The 3rd Sunday is the Veneration of the Cross. The 4th Sunday is the Ladder of Divine Ascent of St. John Climacus. The 5th Sunday is St. Mary of Egypt. Each of these themes offers some guidance and assistance for us as we journey through the weeks of Great Lent.

Just like the season of Triodion and Great Lent seems to sneak up on us every year, we also can lose track of the time during Great Lent. Often we struggle to keep these themes in the forefront of our minds and actions, and sadly we can let much of Great Lent go by without our direct participation.

This year, let us deliberately pay attention to Great Lent and allow for the themes of this time period to burrow deep within our hearts and minds. Let us be watchful and observe these days with joyful anticipation, granting the experiences of this blessed time to make a home within our souls! May the God continue to watch over us and grant us strength for this incredible and wonderful time! God bless you all!

Message From DEACON MICHAEL ...

My Brothers and Sisters, Happy New Year, May it be blessed!

Let us contemplate the Love of our Jesus so it will overpower every other natural love. The more we renounce, the more Love of God we shall enjoy. May no longer love separate you from the love of Christ. The sufferings of this present life are not to be compared with the future glory which will be given to those who struggle. The future is the time for crowns of eternal glory - Rewards, praises, and dwelling together with the holy angels beside the supreme throne of God. I pray that the Lord will give you pure love. Godly love, full of mercy and care. He who has love abides in God, and God in him. The evidence that we are of God and that we love Him is when we have true love for one another. We were created in God's image and likeness. We are able to "resemble God" as much as humanly possible through virtue. God possesses the virtues by nature, whereas we acquire them with His help and grace when we struggle. We have them through God's blessing because we have been created by God, with as many virtues as possible. We should nourish it, water it, clothe it, so that our soul becomes beautiful in the eyes of God.

Yours in Christ, Deacon Michael

Little Known Selected Accomplishments in 2025

In last month's Trinitarian we documented a number of sacraments that took place at Holy Trinity in 2025 including baptisms, chrismations, and marriages. However, there are a number of other significant achievements that tend to fly under the radar, but nonetheless contribute and support our work at Holy Trinity – along with many unsung heroes and heroines. While this article does not capture all the great work, it represents a sample of all that is good with Holy Trinity. In no particular order:

1. The basement storage area has long been a mini house of horrors. That is until Ellen Romeo and a small crew completely cleaned it up, reorganized its contents, and threw out debris dating to the Eisenhower administration. Thank you.
2. The Fall speaker series once again sponsored a dynamic and inspirational speaker – Fr. Barnabus Powell. Thank you to the Koraes Ladies Society for again funding this event!
3. Did you know we have a Care Ministry outreach? Each week John Bellas and his band of helpers visit the homebound or those otherwise unable to attend services in person. In 2025 I estimate that John and his crew made over 540 visits! In addition, he also attends funerals as a representative of the Care Ministry, which must be a bit heartbreaking. Thanks, John.
4. In 2025 the Koraes Ladies Society served over 36 Makaria meals following funeral services – in many cases coordinating the event with numerous families. Plus, they baked about 2.1 million cookies and pastries :). Thank you, one and all.
5. Fr. Nick again offered the Orthodoxy 101 and 201 classes to close to 100 people who attended one or more of the classes to rave reviews. Probably had something to do with the nearly 30 new members the Church gained last year. Kudos!
6. Our food pantry, planned, organized, and executed to perfection by Denise Bellas now serves 40 families per month – and also provides holiday dinners with all the fixin's for Thanksgiving and Christmas. Oh, and birthday boxes with cake mix, frosting, candles, etc. Please see the January Trinitarian for a list of all who have assisted. Can you say 'Above and Beyond'?
7. We replaced our old coffee pot which had fought bravely against the ravages of time; RIP. We finally figured out how to make it run correctly as well. And -- do you remember when our tap water tasted like it was scooped out of the Atlantic Ocean after a hurricane? No more, thanks to a rebuilt water softener!
8. Joyce Spanakis leads the choir each Sunday providing a beautiful musical dimension to our Divine Liturgy. Thank you. You always sound great.
9. Tom Papadopoulos and Nick Aslanides have repaired nearly every plumbing fixture, most things that are plugged into the wall, furniture, restroom disasters, and anything else that is breakable. Thank you, gentlemen.
10. If you are a fan of the Jeopardy! TV program, you'll appreciate my contribution in helping Julie self-evaluate her responses to the questions. She gets a lot of them right, but I thought she needed the advantage of my wisdom to make sure the scoring was accurate. The following responses are not considered correct when given in response to answers provided by actual contestants:
    a. "I was going to say that!"
    b. "You know, I was just thinking that, really."
    c. "I think my answer was close enough." (Example: the correct answer is "What is the Pacific Ocean" but Julie had responded "Lake Erie.")

Feel free to share with your spouse or viewing partner and let me know how it goes.

It's impossible to list everything – Breakfast with Santa, Grecian Festival, Habitat for Humanity – but it's a start. Thank you to everyone who labors out of the limelight.

Introduced in 1983, the St. John Chrysostom Oratorical Festival provides Greek Orthodox teenagers the opportunity to write and talk about their faith. The Oratorical Festival Program begins at the parish level and is divided into three divisions:

- Elementary Division (local festival only) for students in grades 4–6
- Junior Division for students in grades 7–9
- Senior Division for student in grades 10–12

Watch for details on the local Parish event and dates!

The top speakers in the Junior and Senior Divisions advance to the district level. Two finalists in each district division represent the district at the Metropolis Oratorical Festival. The top speaker in each metropolis division is then selected to participate in the Archdiocese Finals, which is hosted by a different metropolis each year.
