From the desk of Fr. Nick...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

THIS IS THE DAY THAT THE LORD HAS MADE! LET US REJOICE AND BE GLAD IN IT!

It's crazy that we are not saying "Christ is Risen" into at least a little bit of June, right? I feel like my June is only halfway complete without it. But that is the effect of having Pascha almost as early as it can possibly be celebrated (for those asking in their heads, the earliest possible date for Pascha April 4 – on the Old Calendar).

But what happens when Pascha is early? Yup. Say it out loud for all to hear… WE GET TO FAST!!! Yay!!!

"Wait… there is a fast in June?" Actually yes, there is a designated fasting period starting on the Monday following the Sunday of All Saints. It is a lighter fasting period – a fish allowed fast (except, of course, on Wednesdays and Fridays which are normal strict fast days, even during a lighter fast).

"Why are we fasting in June? After all, that is summer. We shouldn't have to fast in the summer. I mean, doesn't God take a vacation in the summer?" Thankfully, God never is on vacation. And fasting is not a chore, it is an opportunity to become more Christ-like. We should be welcoming fasts and getting excited about them.

But, this fast is connected to the Apostles. You see, we fast before Christmas and Pascha, and both of those are 40 day fasts. We fast for Holy Week (7 days). We fast for the Theotokos - 14 days in August (with a one day fish break on August 6 for the Transfiguration). We fast one day before Theophany and one day for the Cross (September 14) and St John the Baptist (August 29). And, lastly, we fast Wednesday and Friday every week, with the exceptions of the weeks following Christmas, Pascha, Pentecost, and also the First week of the Triodion. All these dates of the year are fixed. So, if you total the amount of fixed fasting days through the year, we are at around 180 (depending on if those fixed fasting dates are already on Wednesdays or Fridays). That's half the year.

But the fast of the Apostles is a variable fast, because it starts on the Monday of All Saints (which is a date that changes ever year depending on when Pascha and Pentecost falls), and it ends on the feast of the Apostles Peter and Paul (which June 29 – a fixed date every year.) So, the amount of days that we fast for this fasting period fluctuates, depending on how early or late Pascha is. This year, because Pascha is so early, we will have three weeks (21 days) of an Apostle's fast.

(And just think, we don't celebrate the Apostles Peter and Paul on the Old Calendar, which would be 2 extra weeks of fasting until July 12.)

But, why do we fast for the Apostles? We fast for the Apostles because we are reminded that they didn't fast while Jesus was with them, but after He ascended, they began a life that included fasting again. They weren't fasting exactly the way that the Mosaic law taught them (with about 10% of the Law of Moses revolving around food), but they were still fasting. It just wasn't out of obligation… it was out of a desire to live a more holy life in Christ, Who also fasted, when He never had to.

In fact, after the Resurrection the Apostles made some of their most important decisions after prayer and fasting (Acts 13,14,27). St. Paul speaks about fasting in Corinthians, and the apostles spoke about fasting in nearly every town that they visited. And we know that because nowhere in the Bible does it say to fast on Wednesday and Friday. But it does say those exact words in the Didache (which is a late 1st century summary of the Lord's teaching through the Apostles).

So let us enter this wonderful fasting season for the Apostles with great joy. Let us look forward to every fasting season with excited anticipation. And let us celebrate those amazing Apostles with our fast! God bless you all!

Message From DEACON MICHAEL ...

Union with God (theosis). Reception of the Holy Spirit. How is it possible for us to make this a reality? The answer remains one: The Christian life comes into being with the sacraments and with holy work, those virtuous works which are done with a pure and motive in the name of Christ. The true purpose of the Christian life is that we receive the Holy Spirit as our own, which in return divinizes our existence. It is not possible for us to live in God without tasting God.

Without God living in us, without receiving God within us. It is the mystery of the Holy Eucharist which unites us in a mystical and spiritual manner with God and which produces our divinization. The Holy mystery of the Body and Blood is a concrete realization of the unity of human nature with Christ, and unity with all the members of the Church. Through the Holy Eucharist we are transformed into that which we receive. We take Christ into our spirit and into our flesh and with Him and within Him we die, are buried and resurrected through the Holy Eucharist, our souls are cleansed, elevated, sanctified, mystically fed, and made incorruptible. Our body receives the seed of incorruption and resurrection.

Deacon Michael
