From the desk of Fr. Nick...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

THIS IS THE DAY THAT THE LORD HAS MADE! LET US REJOICE AND BE GLAD IN IT!

We have so many things to be thankful for! We can thank God for the hard work and labor for the very successful festival this year. We can thank God for letting the crazy air quality and the warnings pass so that we could enjoy an outdoor event without worrying about our lungs. We can thank God for allowing us one more chance to express the joy of being Orthodox and Greek to the surrounding area.

But I wish to thank all of you for your hard work. Each year that we do this, we give ourselves an opportunity to bring more people into our church building. And more and more people get introduced to the crown jewel of our festival: The Orthodox Christian Faith.

I know that we are extremely proud of our food. I know that we are very proud that we make everything at our festival from scratch and we stand behind its quality. I know that we are proud of our Hellenic heritage and culture. We boast that this culture has survived many wars, extensive oppression and much slavery. And we are still here, having survived it all. Lots to be proud of within our culture.

But we have to remember that behind that beautiful Hellenic culture was the Church. We don't survive any of this without our faith in Christ, leading us to Him – even in the midst of the most difficult times.

This is why I can say that our faith is the crown jewel of our festival. Sharing our faith is the most important thing we can ever do in our lives. Sharing our faith is the completion of the last words that Jesus spoke to the Apostles:

In all four Gospels, Jesus makes this known to the Apostles after His Resurrection:

> "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit…" - *Matthew 28:19
> "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." - *Mark 16:15
>
> "Repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem." - *Luke 24:47
> "Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you." - *John 20:21

Even in Acts of the Apostles, St. Luke the Evangelist expounds on Jesus' last words to His Apostles and gets more specific with Jesus' finals words:

> "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." - *Acts 1:8

We get to fulfill Jesus' last wish while walking this earth when we open our doors to the people surrounding our area and when we can share a bit of our goodness with them. We may not feel like we have this high calling from Christ, but we do.

Jesus Christ is asking for each of us to be a part of His teaching and preaching ministry. He wants and desires for us to continue His work of "making disciples of all nations." This isn't something that we HAVE to do, it is something we GET to do. It is a privilege that Jesus bestows upon us!

So this year, we did get to spread our love for our Hellenic heritage and culture. But more importantly, we made the real heritage available. The heritage of God's love and compassion through the Church. God bless you all!

Message From DEACON MICHAEL ...

Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Faith as every gift from on High, becomes the state of our spirit, and thus it depends also on ourselves. God never forces us, in our freedom. We accept His love or reject it. God stands at the door (of our heart) or knocks, "If any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him and will sup with him and he with me (Rev. 3:30), thus someone who himself opens the door of his heart and his need receives faith. Faith does not depend on any amount of knowledge. Faith is spiritual intuition. Faith in the true God is the first form of love for Him. Perfect faith means being in the presence of the existence of the uncreated First Being who is without beginning. The beginning of all that is. For truth to be absolute, it must be God Himself, giving to all things, their beginning and holding all things in Himself. Truth contains in itself also its affirmation by a believer, and his becoming true. The truth is a Person not an abstract idea. The words which the Father gave His Only Begotten Son. The Word of God, which He gave to us: (I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me" (John 17:8, Act 5:20). Of someone who is united with Christ it is said, "Out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water" (John 7,38)

Yours in Christ,

Deacon Michael

A Message from our Council President

Better and Better

I write this on the Monday following our festival, and like many of you are slowly recovering and reflecting on the past week, the chairpersons probably are reflecting on the past year of planning and coordinating and trying to preserve their sanity. I must say, this year was the best ever, for reasons I'll discuss below. The food of course is always superb; that has not changed. I have only been to the festival since 2019 after it had relocated to the Church grounds and I had relocated back to Ohio. Here is what I saw, having no real part in the planning other than serving as Chief Executive Garbage Collector during the festival:

- Increased efficiency in nearly every aspect of the operation. For example, Mike Lawson kept the kitchen humming with his planning and expertise and I saw a lot more smiles and happy conversation amongst the workers. On the garbage detail, we now use heavy-duty garbage bags and were provided a bigger golf cart with its own cargo compartment along with a tow-along trailer. As a result, we could collect more trash without the dreaded exploding garbage bag tears and could haul more per trip to the dumpsters. You may recall that when we started we only had a riding lawn mower to haul trash and people using portable oxygen, walkers and canes were passing us by.
- Bumping up against the HOF Balloon Festival seemed to have no impact, or possibly even a positive impact on attendance and revenue. We are our own main event. And while some may argue that the absence of our dancers would not be a big deal, I noted that 90% of outside customers stop what they are doing to gather around so that they watch our skilled youth show respect to their Hellenic heritage. It is a big deal, even I can see that.
- The new layout on the parking lot seemed to provide a lot more space and breathing room to those cooking in the parking lot near the main tent, and made better use of available space in general.
- Having three cashiers in the indoor taverna was a great move, as this was at times a choke-point in the past. Likewise, traffic patterns at the outside taverna and dessert areas seemed to decrease waiting times. Ted and Sally Rath did a great job, as always.
- Lisa Georgiades made sure we had all the necessary hardware and software needed to ensure quick checkouts at the register and I know she must have answered a million questions on their operation. She also keeps detailed accounting which facilitates future analysis on our financial operations. I think she also had a great deal to do with our online ordering capability as well.
- Thanks to Steve Stamoules and his merry band of moneymen for their dedicated and careful collection and stewardship of our cash receipts.
- I ask for forgiveness from Frances Pantelides for not mentioning her name in the Album as a co-chairperson. She is truly an unsung hero, but I am singing now.
- I was talking to a person from another Greek Orthodox Church who made the comment, "You know, Holy Trinity is pretty much the gold standard for festivals in Stark County," and I couldn't agree more. While many organizations talk about continuous quality improvement, here at Holy Trinity we live it. And to all those who helped make this year's Grecian Festival a success, thank you.
