From the Desk of Fr. Nick....

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

THIS IS THE DAY THAT THE LORD HAS MADE! LET US REJOICE AND BE GLAD IN IT!

Beloved, we hear much on the subject of Stewardship. So many of us think that Stewardship is giving. While that is partially true, we don't understand why. And one of the reasons that we don't get this mentality of Stewardship is because we don't remember how our communities got started here in America.

When we came to this country, seeking a better life for our families and trying to support our families overseas, many major community organizations (including churches) had membership fees associated with them. Well, we realized why that was. It was because the government here wasn't going to pay for the expenses of the parish the way the government does in Greece. We, therefore, had to create a system where we could not only build our houses of worship, but we needed to be able to offer financial stability to secure our financial future.

So, for years there were basic minimum fees associated with being a member of basically all the parishes in our Diocese or Archdiocese. Everyone pays a fee per year to say that they are members of the parish and in return, they get to enjoy the blessings of the parish life: They get to be married, their kids get to be baptized, they get to have their funerals here, etc.

Thankfully, over the years, the idea of being a "Member in Good Standing" in an Orthodox Parish has evolved beyond money. It includes being a good Orthodox Christian, being sacramentally active (which incorporates confession), and also being a contributor to the parish in various ways (that factor in your time and talent, as well as your treasure). And also, we have encouraged people to give Biblically as they can, striving for a tithe or 10% as a minimum goal to work towards. And even if we reach that goal of 10%, we should also try to give more beyond that, if we can. The same can be said of our time and talents in the same way.

Why have we made this transition of using time and talents to go with our monetary gifts? And why focus on a tithe? It is because, although minimum fees and such were practical applications of different religions and groups in this country when we got here, they weren't the teachings of Jesus Christ or the teachings of the Bible. The Bible focused on Stewardship. What is Stewardship?

Basically, Stewardship is the idea the everything we have (time, our wealth, and even the talent we use to create our wealth)... These are all gifts from God. We can use them however we want to use them, and for whatever purposes we choose (after all, God gave us freewill).But, if we want to be utilizing our gifts in an appropriate manner, then we honor the Gift-giver by using those gifts for the purposes that He would want us to use them.

For example, there is nothing stopping us from taking a Frank Sinatra record that we received as a gift (those of us who still have records) and using it as a frisbee. We could totally do that. It is a free country, and it isn't even against the law to do that. But that wouldn't be the correct use of that record. And it certainly wouldn't be the record creator's intended use, nor the gift-giver's purpose for giving the gift. Stewardship honors the gift by first using it as it was intended to be used (there is so much more to say about this regarding how we use our bodies in the spiritual life).

Stewardship is also something else. It is a place where we take a portion of our received gift, do something with it, and give it back to the gift-giver. So when God gives us grapes, we make wine and give a portion of it back to Him. When God gives us wheat, we make bread and give a portion of it back to Him. We do the same with our finances. God gives us the talent to work and make money. We, then, in gratitude, make our money and give a portion of it back to Him.

So, with this understanding of Christ-centered Stewardship, let us be gracious receivers of all the things that the Lord has given us. Let us be prayerful recipients of His gifts, and let us continue to honor the gifts by using them as the Lord intends, and by offering back to Him a portion of what we make from them. God bless you all!

A special thank you to the following parishioners for assisting me in the Memorial Coffee Hour for George Rafailedes, Jr. Thank you to Penny and Phil Augoustinos and the Choir for donating the wine and prosfora; to Sherry Moscariello for the lovely koliva; and thank you to Parthena for preparing the coffee hour food. God bless Ellen Romeo and Paula Harrison for all they did to make this event special. I cannot forget Chris Gonzales who donated the beautiful icon of St. Romanos in my brother's name. To hear so many in the choir sing brought me to tears. I remember how much church meant to my brother and his love of music. Thank you to all parishioners who donated dessert items. It helped to make the day quite memorable for all who attended and for the Kalenterides family as well.

Message From DEACON MICHAEL ...

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

The Orthodox Church is the One, Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church which has been transmitted throughout the ages through the bishops who have been faithful to His teachings. As you know, Christ did not found over 2,000 different "Christian" Churches. He founded one Church, which has one faith and teaching. This is the Orthodox Church. It is the living repository of all the mysteries which God has revealed to man. The more you grow in Orthodoxy, the more spiritual joy will fill your heart. For once you receive the grace of the Holy Spirit through Holy Baptism. Your whole being will begin to be transformed into that which is in accordance with God's will. In baptism, freedom, which you have never known, is given to you, and it is truly a wonderful gift. Now what you must do is learn about the faith and begin to attempt to live an Orthodox Life, fasting and praying, reading spiritual books. Our faith is based on love of God and our neighbor, with humility, patience and prayer silently within our heart. We must teach our children to learn about our Savior Jesus Christ, and to love Him, and to love His Holy Church.

Your Parish Deacon,

Deacon Michael

Pilgrimage to St. Anthony's Monastery

Deacon Michael is planning a trip to Arizona beginning November 2 and returning November 6, 2026. Anyone interested should sign up at the pangari or call 330-209-7235 with questions. Housing and food are provided by the brothers.

FROM THE PARISH COUNCIL PRESIDENT

The Many Beneficiaries of Stewardship

We know that stewardship comes in many forms – the time-talent-treasures paradigm which we read about so often. I recently read an article on the subject on the St. Haralambos website that served to refresh my memory on the many blessings we receive from our Church. In talking with their president, I received permission to steal (I mean borrow) the idea for an article of my own. While we often imagine stewardship as mostly a flow of dollars to pay our massive utility bills or to compensate clergy, it also directly supports a number of ministries at Holy Trinity in ways that you may not realize or have forgotten. Here are a few to consider (the list is not exhaustive by any means):

1. Worship: Our Divine Liturgy, of course, with all the accoutrement along with Orthros; Holy Week services, Christmas service, memorial services for those who have fallen asleep in the Lord; Vespers. I sometimes visit the Church in times of stress to pray for strength, wisdom, and especially patience along with a request or two for my Guardian Angel. It works.
2. Counseling: Father spends many hours counseling those seeking the Orthodox faith, marriage, or those experiencing intense stress, loss, or grief.
3. Sacraments: The Holy Mysteries – communion, Holy Unction, baptism, marriage, confession, chrismation. And while not strictly a sacrament, funerals give us the belief in eternal life, and the resurrection. It is a beautiful way to say goodbye.
4. Operations: making sure it's simultaneously either too hot or too cold in Church (I'm joking); never ending repairs and preventive maintenance to keep small problems from becoming big ones; keeping our grounds looking great; snow removal; salaries; janitorial services; window washing (did you notice how clean they are now?); safety inspections for our kitchen and fire extinguishers; maintaining our Automatic External Defibrillator (AED); food safety training; office supplies; insurance premiums.
5. Christian Education: The weekly bible study; Orthodoxy 101 and 201 classes; our wonderful bookstore which stocks an impressive collection of reference books and icons. Church tours given during the festival; Koraes-sponsored educational presentations.
6. Outreach: Here I am thinking about the visits that John Bellas provides to shut-ins and those confined to nursing homes; Father makes many visits as well including those who are hospitalized; and of course our food pantry that keeps growing and serving.
7. Festival: We are blessed to have dedicated and talented leaders who somehow bring the Church together each year in a massive display of fellowship, incredibly hard work throughout the year (I'm looking at you, bakers!), and Hellenic heritage.
8. Youth Ministries: Sunday School; Youth Summer Camp; GOYA, JOY; basketball (!); Greek Dance Troupes, Altar Boys.
9. Communications: Monthly Trinitarian; weekly bulletins; Church webpages; "One Call" phone communications.

In closing, thank you for your incredible generosity in supporting Holy Trinity with your volunteerism, many skills, and financial aid!

SUNDAY school

Sunday School News

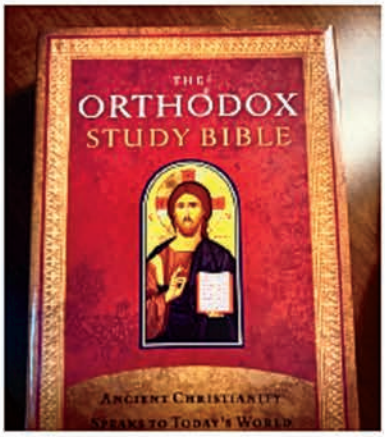

This year all students in grades 7–12 received a copy of The Orthodox Study Bible. I would like to thank Koraes for purchasing these bibles for our students. In past years, these Bibles were given to high school graduates at the Name Day Banquet. We have decided to provide them earlier so every student receives one when they enter 7th grade. We hope the students appreciate this gift and make good use of it.

Class began on September 20th, and we look forward to a great year. If you have a child ages 3–18, please encourage them to join us in class. We love teaching them about our Orthodox faith and building relationships with each other.

Our first event for the year is a fall bake sale on October 11th, mark your calendars! I ask that all the Sunday school children participate and bring a baked good to sell. If anyone else would like to donate to the sale that would be wonderful. Please contact me if you have any questions.

Thank you all for your support of our Sunday school!
